Asking For Another Trial

Application for a new trial has been made by minority stockholders of the Copper Belle Mining company in the case of Paine-Webber & company vs. the Copper Belle Mining company which owns property in the Greenough district.

The application was made by James Reilly, a New York stockholder, through Attorney John B. Wright, of Tucson.

Involved in the suit is a note for about $300,000 which was given to a New York firm and latter transferred to Paine-Webber & company. It is the contention of the minority stockholders of the Copper Belle Mining company that this note was given by the directors without a warrant.

Here's one from the official program of the Shrine meeting, which is to be pulled off at Phoenix: "Mary had a little calf, It was so very lean, That everywhere that Mary 'goed' It 'searcely' could be seen.

And 'stacked' them in her hose, So now her calf is plainly seen, Who ever Mary goes."

Arizona & Colorado Railroad Project

The construction of another railroad traversing New Mexico from north to south seems almost assured if preliminary surveys now being run are any criterion.

The new railroad will be known as the Arizona & Colorado Railroad, articles of incorporation for which have already been filed in the office of the territorial secretary in Santa Fe.

The proposed route will be through Luna and Grant counties, the title National Forest Reserve, east of the Mogollon mountains, through Socorro, Valencia and McKinley counties and into the San Juan coal fields, and is a Phelps-Dodge Co. project.

From Monday's Daily.

It is now said that Thomas W. Lawson, who has taken over the Consolidated Arizona Smelting Co., is negotiating for the purchase of the Saddle Mountain property at Christman in Pinal county, with a view to obtaining a self-fluxing proposition to aid in the operation of the Humboldt smelter, none of the base metals having ever been discovered in Yavapai county in sufficient quantities to make it worth mining for smelting purposes.

The U. S. grand jury reconvened this afternoon and will take up their investigations of several cases from Santa Cruz county, also a few Edmunds act violations are to be passed upon.

The U. S. officials are reticent as to the probable action on Bisbee cases thought to be of a sensational character. The jury may be in session two days.

The little two-year-old child of Kimball Maxham of Thatcher was tossed in the air by the horns of a vicious bovine, but escaped with only slight bruises and few small scratches.

Mrs. A. A. Hopkins entertained Saturday in honor of the Misses Ethel and Lottie Jones and Miss Merritt who are visiting here from Bisbee.

Dr. Walker and wife recently left New York on the steamer "Mexico" bound for Vera Cruz, Mexico, and the message was sent as board the steamer by wireless telegraph via St. Augustine, Florida.

Mrs. Walker was taken ill on board, Sup't. Walker and wife at once left for Vera Cruz to meet the couple on their arrival at that port. Dr. and Mrs. Walker visited their son here last year and will be pleasantly remembered by many Tombstonians.

It is to be hoped Mrs. Walker's illness will not prove serious and Tombstone will be favored by an early visit from the couple.

Thos. Taggart to ### Visit Arizona

Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national democratic committee, will visit Phoenix some time between now and the democratic convention to be held in Denver in July, if he does not change his present plans.

George F. Merryman of Phoenix, boyhood friend of Taggart in Indianapolis, received a letter from him in which he states that one of his visits to Denver he will go to Phoenix.

The United States geological survey has issued a report on the coal fields of southwestern Utah and northwestern Arizona.

This coal has been known since 1854, when the first mine was opened in Utah. The remoteness of the field from any large market has restricted its utilization to the supply of local demands for which the officials say it has long been important.

The construction of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad has brought transportation facilities within thirty-five miles of the important outcrops, and a branch line from this road to the principal mines could easily be built.

Such railroad lines are said to have been surveyed, but no construction work has been done.

The anti-administration wing of the Republican party is framing up a job to select two delegates favorable to Taft, but to send them to Chicago un-instructed, and thus destroy the alleged power of Gov. Kibbey and Chief Justice Kent.

Insurance Money For School Fund

The total amount which the insurance companies doing business in this territory will pay into the school fund this year will aggregate five or six thousands dollars more than last year, said Lew W. Collins, assistant secretary of the territory, to the Phoenix Gazette.

Every insurance company must pay two per cent of the total amount of premiums to the maintenance of the schools of the territory.

Last year the revenue derived from this source was slightly over $25,000. This year it will not fall short of $30,000 and it may possibly go much higher.

About half of the companies now doing business within the limits of the territory have already filed their year reports. There are about eighty with Arizona charters and of these thirty-nine have made their statements as required by law.

Without exception all show a uniform increase in the amount of business done.

Unfortunate Accident at T. C. M. Co. Shaft

An unfortunate accident occurred at the big shaft of the T. C. M. company early this morning when Lockwood Mead, a well known miner, while descending on the cage, in some manner got his left arm caught on the timbers and sustained a broken limb.

The injured man was promptly taken to the surface and medical aid summoned. Dr. Bacon found two serious breaks on the arm, one near the shoulder and the other above the wrist. The injured member was set and the patient is doing as nicely as can be expected.
